

R E M A R K S

At the outset, Applicant and his attorneys wish to thank Examiners Kornakov and Ko for the courtesy of the interview conducted August 10, 2010. The Examiners' careful attention to the application on that occasion is greatly appreciated.

At the interview, possible claim amendments were identified to more clearly distinguish the pending claims from the applied prior art.

In the case of the method claims, it was tentatively agreed that this could be accomplished by changing the term "selectively" to --individually-- in claim 7.

That change is made by the present amendment, whereas the device claims 1-6 are cancelled without prejudice to their possible presentation in a divisional application.

The present amendment is properly enterable after final rejection as it requires no further consideration or search, and serves to place the application in condition for allowance.

Applicant believes that in light of the present amendment and the foregoing remarks, all claims are in condition for allowance.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized in this, concurrent, and future replies, to charge payment or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 25-0120 for any additional fees required under 37 C.F.R. § 1.16 or under 37 C.F.R. § 1.17.

Respectfully submitted,

YOUNG & THOMPSON
